

Coconut Grove Village West

Multiple Property Designation

Project:

Wood Frame Vernacular Residential Structures of Coconut Grove Village West as a Multiple Property Designation

Purpose:

The wood frame vernacular residences of Coconut Grove Village West are associated with the overall establishment and continued settlement of the area by black Bahamians, African-Americans from the South, and their descendants. These significant structures are associated with the community's contributions to the development of Coconut Grove.

Participation:

Join us to discuss this proposed multiple property designation. Preservation staff will explain the designation process, what it means to be a designated historic resource, and what happens after designation.
