Bike Miami Days Receives Two Prestigious Recognitions

(Miami, FL) Miami's largest pedestrian and bicycle-friendly street festival, Bike Miami Days, has received two prestigious honors from the Association of Pedestrian & Biking Professionals (APBP) and the Florida Bicycle Association.

The APBP has named Kathryn Moore, Mayor's Aide and Bike Miami Days organizer, as Young Professional of the Year, for her work in Bike Miami Days, Bike Miami Rides and other pedestrian and bicycle-friendly initiatives. The award was created this year and it will be given during Walk21, the 10th International Conference on Walking and Livable Communities, held in New York City on October 7 - 9.

The Florida Bicycle Association selected Bike Miami Days and Bike Miami Rides to receive the Event of the Year Award on behalf of Bike Miami Days and Bike Miami Rides.

"We would like to recognize your efforts and achievements that help us deliver our mission to inspire and support people and communities to enjoy greater freedom and well being through bicycling," reads the association's announcement.

"I am proud that the cycling community has recognized our efforts to make Miami a more pedestrian and bicycle-friendly city, and I hope to see Bike Miami Days continue with the support of our community," said Mayor Diaz.

Bike Miami Days was created by City of Miami Mayor Manny Diaz in November 2008 to reconnect people with their community by giving them the opportunity to explore our City in a new way. Downtown businesses, local non-profits and cultural organizations are invited to promote their services before thousands of participants.
