City of Miami to Hold First Bike Summit, Monday, June 15

- Residents will be able to give input about Miami's Bicycle Master Plan-

(Miami, Florida) – The City of Miami will hold the First Bike Summit on Monday, June 15, 2009, 6:00 pm – 9:00 pm, at Jose Marti, Community Center, 351 SW 4 St., to discuss Miami's Bicycle Master Plan. Miami residents are encouraged to attend to learn more about the plan and provide input.

Members of the Bicycle Action Committee, City staff, planners, cyclists, and neighbors will be on hand to take part in the plan to make Miami a more bicycle-friendly city. An overview of the Bicycle Master Plan and a presentation on other cities' examples will be given. Attendees will have the opportunity to guide the development of future Bicycle Corridors through hands on mapping activities.
