Miami Commissioner Marc Sarnoff Hosts “Fiscal Wake Up Tour” VIP Forum ---South Florida Business and Political Leaders Join National Policy Experts to Discuss Daunting Economic Outlook and Promote Realistic Public Dialogue---

(Miami, FL)---City of Miami District 2 Commissioner Marc D. Sarnoff is bringing together dozens of the most influential decision makers in South Florida to meet with an all-star panel of economic policy experts from the non-partisan Concord Coalition. The panel includes Concord Coalition Director Robert Bixby and Former Comptroller of the United States David Walker. The VIP Forum and business luncheon is set for Monday, March 23rd at 12:00pm at the Four Season Hotel Miami 1435 Brickell Avenue. The event is sponsored entirely with private donations and no tax money is being used.

“We are facing unprecedented challenges,” says Commissioner Sarnoff. “Our quality of life is at stake and we need real answers, not rhetoric.”

The Concord Coalition’s “Fiscal Wake Up Tour” has made stops in more than 40 cities around the nation explaining in plain terms why economic experts with diverse backgrounds are so alarmed by our country’s long-term fiscal outlook.

Panel Presentations will be followed by a Q & A session.
