Miami Commissioner Marc D. Sarnoff to Present Special Mother's Day Honor to longtime Miami Resident

---Miami Jewish Home and Hospital Resident Helen Feder has lived in the city for more than six decades and has been very involved in serving the community---

(Miami, FL)—City of Miami District-2 Commissioner Marc D. Sarnoff will present a Mother's Day honor to Miami Jewish Home & Hospital resident Helen Feder during a special ceremony on Thursday, May 7th at 10:30am at 5200 NE 2nd Avenue in Miami.

Mrs. Feder is a former president of City of Hope and remains a very active member of the Miami Jewish Federation. The 94-year old has 25 great-grandchildren and maintains an active lifestyle and great sense of humor while living at MJHH.

“Helen Feder exemplifies the best in Motherhood. Her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren are great reflections of her love and leadership. I am very pleased to present her with the MJHH's Mother of the Year Award,” says Commissioner Sarnoff.

Established in 1945 as a not-for-profit 23-bed residence for widows, MJH&H is now home to more than 700 seniors and a vital provider of inpatient and outpatient care and services for approximately 8,000 community residents annually.
