City of Miami Commissioners' Softball Challenge Will Settle Debate Over Best District

Sarnoff's challenge to Sanchez sets stage for good-natured gamesmanship

(Miami, Florida) — City of Miami Commissioner Marc Sarnoff has challenged Commissioner Joe Sanchez to a “friendly” game of softball Sunday, May 6, 2007, at 10 a.m. at Peacock Park, 2820 McFarland Road in Coconut Grove.

The teams will include staff members from each commissioner’s office and City of Miami employees. Celebrity Umpire will be Alex Fernandez, retired Major League Pitcher for the World Championship Marlins and Owner of Strike Zone.

“This game will settle once and for all the debate over which district is better,” said Sarnoff. “We look forward to giving Commissioner Sanchez and his teammates a lesson in sportsmanship and how to lose gracefully.”

Representing District 2, Sarnoff’s office has selected orange and green as its team colors. Sanchez’ office will be representing District 3.
