Homebound Miami Residents Have Thanksgiving Meals Delivered to Their Door.

--Commissioner Marc Sarnoff and South/West Grove NET Office Team Up--

(Miami, FL)—Unable to leave their homes due to disability, illness, or elderly age, dozens of Coconut Grove residents are not able to pick up donations from local charities. On Tuesday, November 25th at 10:00am, they are getting the help they need.

City of Miami District 2 Commissioner Marc Sarnoff, The South/West Grove NET Office, and the Coconut Grove “Positive Partners,” have identified 50 residents in severe need and will hand deliver complete Thanksgiving meals plus additional supplies.

The Virrick Park Library at 3255 Plaza Street will be the meeting point. Media will be provided access to ride-alongs and sound opportunities with Residents receiving donations, Commissioner Sarnoff, and volunteers.

For more information, please contact David Karsh at (305) 250-5335.
